

RED LINE IS THE CUT LINE

The diagram shows a rectangular layout for a book cover. A red line runs vertically down the center, representing the cut line. A blue line runs horizontally across the top, representing the safety line. A green line runs vertically down the center, representing the fold line. Arrows point from the text labels to their respective lines. The text 'BK COVER' is on the left and 'COVER' is on the right, separated by the green fold line. A horizontal arrow at the top points from the blue line to the right edge. A horizontal arrow at the bottom points from the green line to the right edge.
